Summary

Hi there! I'm Chirag Lokhande, a highly motivated computer engineering student with a strong passion for web development. With pursuing a Bachelor's degree from Mumbai University, I possess a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Node.js, and more, enabling me to create dynamic and innovative web applications. Notable achievements include being a finalist in the Rajasthan Police Hackathon 1.0, showcasing my problem-solving abilities and dedication. My diverse project portfolio, from an Online Medicine Ordering Website to a Spotify Clone, demonstrates my technical proficiency and creativity. As a proactive member of various organizations like the Entrepreneurship Cell, Computer Society of India and Avalon Techfest, I've honed my leadership skills and collaborated on exciting projects. I'm always eager to connect and explore new opportunities. Let's connect and discuss how we can collaborate!
